

LEARNING

At School	Outside of School
1 At school you study academic subjects, which are important for getting into university. 2 You learn how to interact with peers in class. 3 You learn how to work together, which is crucial for being successful at work when you become an adult. 3 School teaches us to be responsible: to hand in our work on time, to come to class on time. 4 At school pupils are introduced to different learning strategies. 5 At school we are taught critical thinking skills, how to structure our thoughts. 6 School helps you become a well-rounded person by making you study all kinds of different subjects. 7 School prevents us from focusing too much on a single subject at the expense of other subjects. 8 At school pupils learn test-taking strategies and prepare for important exams. 9 School teaches us to follow instructions and work together. 10 At school you learn to get along with people whose world views and values differ from your own.	1 At home we learn housekeeping and cooking. 2 In our families we learn how to interact with people of different age groups. 3 Outside of school we can engage in specific kinds of sports and hobbies. 4 Outside of school we learn to how be streetsmart. 5 Being streetsmart means you know how to get around the city and how to protect yourself. 6 Outside of school we learn how to earn money and make a living. 7 Time management skills are often taught by parents. 8 Our family teaches us how to be caring and loving people. 9 Getting involved in arts, drama and music helps us become more creative in our everyday lives. 10 The unique experience we get outside of school makes us more interesting as people.